

RIVER CENTER ART COMMITTEE VOLUNTEER JOB DESCRIPTION

---

General Description

This volunteer position helps recruit local artists to exhibit in the Ranch House at the Coke Hallowell Center for River Studies. Exhibits are typically displayed for two-months. Maintaining, hanging and showcasing the artwork are important parts of the Art Committee's role. There will also be six receptions throughout the year to celebrate each artist and their work. Art Committee members are responsible for coordinating receptions including scheduling, outreach, recruiting volunteers, and hosting receptions.

Art related to the mission of the River Parkway Trust, the cultural and natural history of the Central Valley, or broader themes of biology ecology and agriculture are preferred

Duties, Responsibilities and Expectations

- Recruiting artists from the Central Valley and curating exhibits
- Providing support to artist during opening reception
- Recruiting volunteers to help with receptions
- Participate in committee meetings for preparation, discussion and scheduling

Qualifications

- Knowledge of the local art community
- Leadership skills
- Flexible availability
- Interest in the arts

Contact Info

Katie Kincaid, Community Programs Associate
San Joaquin River Parkway and Conservation Trust, Inc.
kkincaid@riverparkway.org
Phone: 559.248.8480 ext. 157

CLICK HERE to see current art exhibits