Bacteriological Monitoring Requirements Not Met for Coke Hallowell Center During March 2023 and April 2023

Our water system recently violated a drinking water standard. Although this is not an emergency, as our customers, you have a right to know what happened, what you should do, and what we did to correct the situation.

We are required to monitor your drinking water for specific contaminants on a regular basis. Results of regular monitoring are an indicator of whether or not our drinking water meets health standards. During March 2023 and April 2023, we did not meet all monitoring requirements for coliform bacteria and therefore cannot be sure of the quality of our drinking water during that time.

What should I do?

- You do not need to boil your water or take other corrective actions.
- The table below lists the contaminant we did not properly test for during March 2023 and April 2023 and how many samples we are required to take and how often, how many samples we took, when samples should have been taken, and the date on which follow-up samples will be taken.

Contaminant	Required sampling frequency	Number of samples taken	When all samples should have been taken	When samples will be taken
Coliform bacteria	1/Month	0	March 2023 and April 2023	June 2023

- If you have health issues concerning the consumption of this water, you may wish to consult your doctor.

What happened? What is being done? Previous testing vendor went out of business

Description of corrective action: Hired new testing vendor

We anticipate resolving the problem within the estimated time frame: May 2023
